Awareness of Bullying in Children and Young People Level 2

Course Overview

Welcome to the Awareness of Bullying in Children and Young People Level 2 course, a comprehensive program designed to provide you with a deeper understanding of bullying and its impact on children and young people.

Bullying is a complex issue that affects many young people and can have serious and long-lasting effects on their mental health, social relationships, academic performance, and overall well-being. It can take many forms, from physical violence to emotional abuse, and it can happen in a variety of settings, such as schools, playgrounds, online platforms, and even at home.

This course will equip you with the knowledge and skills needed to identify bullying behavior, prevent it from occurring, and support those who have been affected by it. You will learn about the different types of bullying, the warning signs that a child or young person may be showing, and how to intervene effectively to stop it.

Whether you are a teacher, a parent, a caregiver, or simply someone who cares about the well-being of children and young people, this course will give you the tools you need to make a difference. By the end of the course, you will have a comprehensive understanding of bullying, its impact, and how to prevent it, and you will be equipped to take action to create a safe and supportive environment for all.

What is the cost?
