End of Life Care Level 2

Course Overview

Welcome to the End of Life Care Level 2 course, designed to provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the principles and practices of end of life care.

This course is specifically designed for individuals who wish to develop their knowledge and skills in providing care and support to those who are approaching the end of their lives.

Throughout this course, you will cover a range of topics, including the management of pain and discomfort, the impact of dementia on end of life care, and the role of the care worker at the time of death. Additionally, you will gain an understanding of the loss and grief process, and learn how to support individuals and their families during this difficult time.

By completing this course, you will develop the necessary knowledge and skills to provide compassionate, person-centred end of life care. You will be equipped with the tools and resources to help individuals and their families navigate the complexities of end of life care, and to provide comfort and support during their final stages of life.

What is the cost?

As a result of government funding, this qualification is currently offered at no cost. However, please note that the number of funded places can be limited. To ensure you secure your spot, we recommend booking early.

How do learners benefit?

Taking the End of Life Care Level 2 course would benefit learners by providing them with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to provide compassionate, person-centred care and support to individuals who are approaching the end of their lives.

Learners will gain a deeper understanding of the complexities of end of life care, including the management of pain and discomfort, the impact of dementia, and the loss and grief process.

This course will equip learners with the tools and resources to provide emotional and practical support to individuals and their families during this difficult time, helping them to navigate this challenging period with dignity, compassion, and respect.
